Internet Society

December 30, 2016

Re: Statement of recognition

To whom It May Concern

This is to certify that, in the past 3 years, Professor Juliao Braga was invited by the Internet Society and adequately taught the course entitled "Dynamic Routing and Internet Exchange Point (IXP)" in the following trainings, which had been conducted by the Internet Society for the African Union AXIS project implemented by the Internet Society:

- Sao Tome and Principe, from November 10 to November 14, 2014
- Praia, Cape Verde, from November 25 to November 29, 2014
- Maputo, Mozambique, August 17 to 21 2015
- Malabo, Equatorial Guinea, from March 14 to 18 2016

Professor Braga's services were highly appreciated by the benefitting countries as well as by the Internet Society and the African Union Commission.

Founded in 1992, the Internet Society (ISOC) is an international non-profit organization and is a professional membership society with more than 120 chapters, over 60,000 individual members in over 180 countries. It provides leadership in addressing issues that confront the future development of the Internet and provides policy, technical, and development expertise. Our web-site can be found here: www.internetsociety.org

Should you require any further information or clarification on the performance of Juliao Braga, I can be reached at + 251 9 13 88 59 59, or email Bekele@isoc.org

Thanking you in advance for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,

Dawit Bekele (Dr)
Regional Bureau Director, Africa
Internet Society (ISOC)
www.InternetSociety.org